

Section 11.12 Legal Assistance

When a faculty member is named as a defendant in any legal complaint related to the faculty member's performance of official duties as an employee of the College, the College shall provide legal assistance upon determination that the faculty member's actions giving rise to the complaint were reasonable and taken within the scope of his or her College ~~E~~employment. Nothing in this section should be construed as obligating the College to provide legal assistance where such assistance is not permitted by applicable law including, but not limited to, Section 111.07 of the Florida Statutes. In providing legal assistance under this Section, the College shall retain the sole right, at all times, to select and assign legal counsel.